

AUTHORS' SHORT BIOGRAPHIES / DATE DESPRE AUTORI

---

CHEIRCHANTERI, Georgia graduated from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Faculty of Architecture-Engineers, and from the Technological Educational Institute of Athens, Greece, Department of Graphic Design. She pursued postgraduate studies and specialized in Visual Communication. She holds a PhD in Industrial Archaeology from the National Technological University of Athens (NTUA), School of Architecture. She has participated in many international conferences in the fields of industrial buildings' architecture, industrial product design, circular economy, and sustainability. She is the author of three academic books and many academic articles. She currently works as an Assistant Professor at the University of West Attica, Faculty of Industrial Design and Production Engineering, within the School of Engineering.

ORCID ID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-8099-7522>

Email: geoxeir@gmail.com

CRAGG, Bronwyn holds a Master of Arts in History (2021) and a BA Hons. in Jewish Studies (2020) from the University of Toronto. His research interests include the history of the Romanian Legionary Movement (Iron Guard) after 1941, Jewish history of the 20th century, European literature and art history, and the history of (ultra-)nationalism and fascism in Europe. Currently, he is working on a biographical study of Horia Sima and the Legionary Movement in exile. He serves as an assistant researcher to the project "Présence luxembourgeoise en Roumanie 1890-1950" at the Centre de Documentation sur les Migrations humaines (Dudelange, Luxembourg), and as Editor for the Newsletter of the Society for Romanian Studies.

Email: bronwyn.cragg@gmail.com

FUCHS, Olivier is a post-doctoral researcher at Heriot-Watt University in Edinburgh and Senior Lecturer at CBS in Cologne. His research focuses on management issues, especially in digitalized and remote settings, but he is interested in the history of Eastern Europe and the Eastern Mediterranean area as an additional preoccupation. His recent publications as co-author include "The Impact of Remote Work During COVID-19 Pandemic on Millennial Employee Performance: Evidence from the Indonesian Banking Industry", "Improved Practices for Client Contact Management in a Crisis During Restrictions on Personal Contact as caused by Covid-19" or "A Probing German Case Study on Trust Building Factors Around Online Leadership in Virtual Work Environments".

ORCID ID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2178-3051>

Email: of11@hw.ac.uk

IRIMIA, Maria Mădălina is a researcher at the Center for the Study of Jewish History in Romania (CSIER), based in Bucharest. Dr. Irimia is also Head of the Archival Office of the Federation of Jewish Communities in Romania. In September 2022, she defended her PhD dissertation at the “Al. I. Cuza” University of Iasi. The topic of the dissertation was Jewish Intellectuals in Iasi during the Second Half of the 19th and the Early 20th Century. In November 2014 she received a POSDRU grant of the Romanian Academy, Iași Branch. She holds an MA degree in Jewish History and Hebrew Studies (2013) from the Department of History at the “Al. I. Cuza” University of Iasi and a BA degree in history from the same university (2011). Her main fields of research focus on Jewish intellectual and social life in Romania, the modernization of Jewish society, anti-Semitism, and anti-Jewish violence. Dr. Irimia is a recipient of the Max and Cecil (Steuer) Chesin / JDC Archives Fellowship. She currently works on a project examining Wilhelm Filderman’s work as the president of the JDC in Romania (1920-1947). She was also a recipient of the PLURAL Chișinău Antisemitism Studies Prize (2023).

Email: madalina.irimia@yahoo.com

ONEA, Veronica is an independent scholar. She holds an MA in the field of International Relations, specializing in the Management of International Relations and European Politics. She was the recipient of a Romanian Government scholarship during her studies at the Babeș-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca. She graduated from the Babeș-Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca in 2015. She has been working as a government employee in Chișinău since 2022. Her main research interests focus on the field of Russian studies, with a particular emphasis on Russian foreign policy in Eastern Europe.

ORCID ID: <https://orcid.org/my-orcid?orcid=0000-0002-2091-5940>

Email: veronica.i.onea@gmail.com

PANTEA, Maria Alexandra graduated from the West University of Timișoara in 2004. She received a PhD degree in History from the University of Oradea (2015). She was a recipient of a postdoctoral scholarship at the University of Bucharest (2019-2020). She is currently a researcher at the “Vasile Goldiș” Western University in Arad. She worked on topics related to the history of the church and to Romanian confessional education within the Dual Monarchy. Her research also focuses on the process of modernization and the formation of the Romanian elite, World War I, and the 1918 Great Union. She is the author of numerous scholarly papers published in academic journals and thematic collective volumes. She has also authored several books, including: Medalioane ale preoților și învățătorilor din Protopopiatul Ortodox Român Arad, 1812-1918 and Relatări din Primul Război Mondial prezentate în presa ecleziastică din Banat, which received the prizes of the Society of Historical Sciences in Romania (2017 and 2018). Dr. Pantea is a co-author of the volume Transilvania sub influența tezelor wilsoniene, published by the Mega Press in Cluj in 2023.

ORCID ID: <https://orcid.org/0009-0001-4826-094X>

Email: mariapantea82@gmail.com

ŚWIECH, Wojciech Adam is an independent scholar. He holds an MA in the field of International Relations, specialization of European Studies. He graduated from the Jagiellonian University of Kraków in 2004. He holds a PhD in Legal Sciences from the Andrzej Frycz Modrzewski Kraków University (2022). He has been working as a local government employee in Kraków since 2007. His main fields of research interest focus on the Second Polish Republic and the Soviet Bloc, with a particular emphasis on the Polish People's Republic.

ORCID ID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6664-1674>

Email: wojtek\_swiech@tlen.pl

TSOUMAS, Johannis received an MA degree in History of Design at Middlesex University, UK, in 1993 and holds a PhD in the History of Art from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece (2002). He has many publications in various scholarly journals and has authored five monographs on design and culture. He currently works at the School of Applied Arts and Culture, Department of Interior Architecture, as well as at the School of Engineering, Department of Industrial Design and Production Engineering, University of West Attica, Greece, as an Art and Design Historian and a Fine Arts Tutor. His areas of research interest are nineteenth-century design, art and decorative arts history, and twentieth-century European popular, visual and material culture.

ORCID ID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2324-1320>

Email: iannis33@hotmail.com