

AUTHORS' SHORT BIOGRAPHIES / DATE DESPRE AUTORI

---

COROLENCO, Cristian is a researcher at the National Museum of History of Moldova and at the Orheiul Vechi Cultural-Natural Reserve. He graduated from the Faculty of Philology and History, specializing in History and Geography, and is currently completing a Master's degree in Management of Cultural Heritage. His research focuses on Classical archaeology, with a particular interest in the circulation of Greek amphorae from the 7th to the 2nd centuries BC in the circum-Pontic area and their role in ancient trade networks. He is an active member of the Interdisciplinary Research Laboratory in Archaeology ArheoTop (UPSC Ion Creangă) and of the research team within the DFG project (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft, Germany) "Ausgrabung der Siedlung Ivancea-Sub Pădure".

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0009-0000-4365-9866>

E-mail: corolenco.cristian14@gmail.com

FERENCZ, Iosif Vasile is a senior researcher at the Museum of Dacian and Roman Civilization in Deva. He specialises in Ancient History, being especially interested in the Second Iron Age. His presentations and studies were centred mainly on the La Tène and Dacian civilizations in Transylvania. His 2007 Doctoral Thesis at the Babeş-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca was published in the same year under the title: The Celts of the Middle Mureş Valley. The author is certified by the Romanian Ministry of Culture as expert archaeologist and an expert in national cultural heritage goods. The activity he carried out at the museum over more than two decades was oriented toward three main directions: archaeological research, the research, inventory, and ranking of the mobile national cultural heritage, and raising the profile of the mobile national cultural heritage. He participated in archaeological research and designed and led the investigations on sites such as Sighişoara-Wietenberg, Divici-Grad, Şeuşa-La Cărarea Morii, Alun-Piatra Roşie, Ardeu-Cetăţuie, Tărtăria-Pietroşiţa, Unip-Dealul Cetăţuica, and others. The author published, alone or collaboratively, over 100 studies, papers, and books, organised numerous exhibits, and presented the results of his work at multiple national and international conferences, symposia, colloquia, and round table discussions. He organised or co-organized 12 national and international conferences. Since 2018 he has been teaching Military Archaeology and Habitat Archaeology courses within the master's degree curriculum of the West University of Timişoara.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-9510-0052>

E-mail: fiosifvasile@yahoo.com

IARMULSCHI, Vasile is PhD (Chisinau, 2014), researcher at the National Museum of the History of Moldova and at the Freie Universität Berlin. He has received his bachelor's degree in prehistoric archaeology at the "Ion Creangă" Pedagogical State University in Chişinău. Dissertation in 2014 at the Institute of Cultural Heritage of the Academy of Sciences of Moldova. Scientific interests are especially focused on the Late Pre-Roman and Early Roman Age in Barbaricum. Author and co-author of more than 40 scientific publications, including 2 monographs: Settlements of the Poienestî-Lucaşeuca Culture (Berlin 2020) and Aşezarea şi necropola de tip Poienestî-Lucaşeuca de la Boroşesti (co-autor M. Babeş) (Chişinău 2020).

Head of two research projects (funded by the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft, Germany) carried out in international cooperation. Alexander von Humboldt Foundation and DAAD scholarship holder.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-9013-1973>

E-mail: vasile.iarmulschi@gmail.com

LUCZKIEWICZ, Piotr, PhD, habil., professor at the Institute of Archaeology, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin, Poland, Privatdozent at Freie Universität Berlin. Main research interests: the La Tène period, the Late Pre-Roman Iron Age, intercultural contacts, weaponry. Author of over 80 scientific publications, head of two research projects (funded by the National Science Centre, Poland) carried out in international cooperation, participant in several international research projects. Alexander von Humboldt Foundation scholarship holder.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-5320-1816>

E-mail: piotr.luczkiwicz@mail.umcs.pl

MARTENS, Jes (PhD,) is associate professor of the Early Iron Age at the University of Oslo, Museum of Cultural History, Department of Archaeology since 1999. Before that he was executive officer (archaeologist) at the Swedish National Board of Antiquities (Riksantikvarieämbetet) in Lund (1996-1999) and before that he held scholarships at the University of Copenhagen (1992-1996) and the National Museum of Denmark (1990-1992). Jes Martens finished his MA at the University of Aarhus in 1990, including a year at the University of Warsaw (1982-1983). The PhD was obtained at the University of Copenhagen in 1998. Jes Martens has held several scholarships such as the Carlsberg foundation, Deutsche Akademische Austausch Dienst, NorFa, the Danish Research Council of the Humanities and Queen Margrethe II foundation. Jes Martens has taught archaeology at the University of Copenhagen and the University of Oslo and has delivered guest lectures at a number of universities in Northern Europe. Jes Martens has functioned as censor at the Universities of Copenhagen, Oslo and Tromsø. The main focus of his research is on the subjects «The Early Iron Age in Northern and Northern Central Europe» and «settlement archaeology». He has published more than 60 papers in national and international journals, books and encyclopediae (in English, German, Italian, Polish, Danish and Norwegian) and has edited or been coeditor of five books. In addition, he has presented papers at more than 50 international conferences as well as being the initiator of more than 10 such events.

E-mail: jes.martens@khm.uio.no

MATEEVICI, Natalia (Phd) is an archaeologist, coordinating scientific researcher in the History, Archaeology, and Museography Department at the National Museum of History of Moldova in Chişinău, Republic of Moldova. She is also a collaborator at the Ion Niculiţă Archaeology Center at the State University of Moldova.

She specializes in classical archaeology, ancient Greek culture, particularly the research and study of Greek commercial amphorae and the influence of Greek-Barbarian trade on the development of local societies in the northwestern and western Black Sea regions. He is the author of about 100 articles on the research topic and has published two monographs. He has participated in archaeological research on ancient sites in Ukraine and Romania.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4660-9781>

E-mail: amforaelada@gmail.com

MEYER, Michael is Dr. hab., Professor at the Free University of Berlin. Specialist in the pre-Roman and Roman Age in Barbaricum. Studied prehistory and early history, geography, European ethnology and classical archeology at the Universities of Marburg and Heidelberg and at the Institute of Archeology London. Scientific interests are especially focused in the Settlements and Battle Archeology. In the years 2011-2019 it was Speaker of the Cluster of Excellence Topoi – The Formation and Transformation of Space and Knowledge in Ancient Civilizations. He is currently the coordinator of the archaeological research project Ausgrabung der Siedlung der Poienestî-Lucaşeuca Kultur von Ivancea-sub Pădure (ME 1251/12-1) funded by the DFG (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft). Author of more than 150 scientific publications, including 2 monographs: Pevestorf 19. Ein mehrperiodiger Fundplatz im Landkreis Lüchow-Dannenberg. Veröffentlichungen der urgeschichtlichen Sammlungen des Landesmuseums zu Hannover 41 (Oldenburg 1993) und Mardorf 23, Ldkr. Marburg-Biedenkopf. Archäologische Studien zur Besiedlung des deutschen Mittelgebirgsraumes in den Jahrhunderten um Christi Geburt (Rahden/Westf. 2008). He is Member of the editorial board of the journal Plural. History. Society.

Email: michael.meyer@fu-berlin.de

MUNTEANU, Octavian is director of the Archeology Interdisciplinary Research Laboratory ArheoTop, Associate Professor at Department of History and Social Sciences, Ion Creangă State Pedagogical University of Chişinău, PhD in Archaeology (1996, Cluj-Napoca). His research interests are determined by the settlement archaeology and pottery study, Latène era issues in the South-Eastern Europe, especially those linked with the Germanic population in the East-Carpathian forest-steppe and their relations with the local population (contacts between Poienişti-Lucaşeuca – Zarubincy – Jastorf - and Przeworsk Culture circle).

Hi is president of the Archaeological Research Centre from Moldova, Corresponding member of the Deutsches Archäologisches Institut, Römisch-Germanische Kommission, and member of the editorial board of the journals Plural. History. Society. Culture and Arheologia Preventivă în Republica Moldova.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-9340-8002>

E-mail: ocmunteanu@gmail.com

MUSTEAŢĂ, Sergiu is currently a Professor at Department of History and Social Sciences, Ion Creangă State Pedagogical University of Chişinău and professor at the „Valahia” University of Târgovişte, Romania. He is the author of 8 monographs and more than 300 articles on history, archaeology, cultural heritage preservation and textbooks analysis. The most recent works are „Community Archaeology in Eastern Europe. An Example from the Republic of Moldova”. In: Jameson, John H. and Sergiu Musteata (eds), Transforming Heritage Practice in the 21st Century- Contributions from Community Archaeology. One World Archaeology Series. Springer, 2019, 45-58; „Archaeological Heritage Resource Management in Romania and the Republic of Moldova: A Comparative View”. In: Campbell S., White L., Thomas S. (eds) Competing Values in Archaeological Heritage. Springer, Cham, 2019, 45-61; Nomads and Natives beyond the Danube and the Black Sea, 700-900 CE, Amsterdam University Press, ARC Humanities Press, Leeds, 2018. He is the editor of two monograph series – ANTIM monographs and Unknown Documents and Histories (30 volumes published). Every year he delivers over 20 presentations and public lectures in various academic centres around the world. During recent years, he has been a visiting scholar and a visiting professor in many universities in the USA, Germany, Romania, Sweden, etc.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2736-1810>

E-mail: sergiu\_musteata@yahoo.com

SCHÖNFELDER, Martin is an archaeologist at the “Leibniz-Zentrum für Archäologie” in Mainz/Germany, working on the pre-Roman Iron Age in Central Europe. He studied in Regensburg, Oxford and Marburg. He completed his postdoctoral fellowship at the Bibracte Research Centre under the direction of UMR ARTeHIS 6298 in Dijon, where he is still an associate member. He has been an elected member of the board of the “Association Française pour l’Étude de l’Âge du Fer” since a long time. For many years he was the editor of the journal ‘Archäologisches Korrespondenzblatt’. His areas of research are Celtic art and mobility in the Iron Age as well as cultural and social practices in the La Tène zone. Here he led or was involved in various research projects, e.g. on testing Celtic migration mobility via isotope analysis, or on Celtic Gold.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2595-7904>

E-mail: martin.schoenfelder@leiza.de

SPÂNU, Daniel (Dr., Hab.) is an archaeologist and research fellow at the “Henri Coandă” Institute of Archeology in Bucharest since 1997. Previously, he attended and graduated the Faculty of History in Bucharest. Spânu was the beneficiary of a pre-doctoral fellowship “Fritz Thyssen Sonderprogramm zum wissenschaftlichen Wiederaufbau in Südosteuropa” offered by the “Alexander von Humboldt” Foundation at the Institute of Prehistoric Archeology in Berlin (2000-2001) and a post-doctoral fellowship offered by the same Foundation at the German Archaeological Institute and the Free University of Berlin (2009-2010). He also carried out several documentation internships in Vienna, Budapest and in several museums in Romania. Spânu defended a doctoral thesis transformed into the monograph Tezaurele dacice, (Bucharest, 2012, dedicated to the “Dacian” hoards of the late La Tène period), as well as an habilitation thesis materialized in the monograph Poienеști. Necropola din secolele II-III (Cluj-Napoca, 2019, an analysis of the burial practices of the 2nd - 3rd centuries from Poienеști, eastern Romania). He has participated in 45 archaeological campaigns in Romania and 10 abroad (France, Germany, Republic of Georgia) and is the author of more than 50 studies published in national or international volumes or periodicals; he presented over 80 papers at national and international scientific meetings. His scientific activity focused mainly on the archeology of the Second Iron Age on the territory of Romania and on the archeology of the “barbaric” world in the vicinity of the Dacia Province in Roman period.

ORCID No: <https://orcid.org/0009-0007-8825-6092>

E-mail: hazdrik@yahoo.com